BLOC A. WRITTEN COMPREHENSION

Who was Princess Diana?

Diana Spencer was born on 1 July 1961. Her family was wealthy and had a close relationship with the British Royal family. In 1981, at the age of 19, Diana became engaged to the Queen's son, Prince Charles. It was a life changing moment for Diana because she was working as a nursery assistant at the time.

On 29 July 1981, Diana and Prince Charles were married in St Paul's Cathedral watched by 3,500 invited guests and an estimated 750 million people around the world on live television. Soon after the wedding, she toured the world with Prince Charles and quickly became a big favorite of the public thanks to her down-to-earth behavior and willingness to speak to conventional people.

Just 11 months after getting married, Princess Diana gave birth to her first son, William. Then, two years later, she had another son called Harry. Princess Diana said she wanted to give William and Harry as much of a normal life as possible. However, her fame and popularity meant it was difficult for her to get away from the attention of newspaper and television companies. No matter how, Diana was followed around by people with cameras wherever she went.

Diana's relationship with Prince Charles was not a happy one, and in 1992, they decided to separate. In 1996, they were granted a divorce and Diana gave up the title of Her Royal Highness (HRH). In 1997 Diana visited Paris. It was there that a car she was traveling in crashed in a tunnel while being followed by photographers in cars and on mopeds. Diana was buried on an island on the Spencer family estate, Althorp. The funeral itself was watched by an estimated 2.5 billion people. The Prime Minister of the UK at the time, Tony Blair, described her as "the people's Princess".
